TAKE PRIDE....

Join the 109 men and women who comprise the nationally accredited Salina Police Department, and wear a badge that provides you with the opportunity to truly make a difference.

To wear the badge, you must be a person of honor and integrity, possess strong communication skills, and be able to render sound decisions under pressure. Most of all, you must be committed to public service.

By helping to make Salina a better place to live, you'll earn the respect of the citizens you serve. And, you'll take pride in being recognized as a law enforcement professional and member of one of the finest municipal police agencies in the nation.

COMMUNITY DATA

Salina is the largest city nearest the geographical center of the United States. It is the 8th largest city in the State of Kansas, encompassing 22 square miles with 273 miles of city streets. The population of approx. 50,000 is a social-cultural mix of industrial, rural, college student, professional, entrepreneurial, young and mature citizens. The economy is strong and diverse, supporting agricultural, industrial, commerce, and transportation sectors. Salina serves as a regional center for health care, education, business, retail shopping, and entertainment interests. The city is located at the intersection of two major interstate highways — Interstate 70 and Interstate 135. U.S. Highway 81, a major transportation arterial, enters the city from the north.
